1. These guidelines are established for the purpose of handling cases in which students are unable to continue the study of a course after the adding/dropping course period has ended.
2. Students who apply to withdraw courses must obtain the consent of the instructor and follow the application method announced in the current semester.
3. This application should be submitted in person. Please complete the application form from week 10 to week 11 as stipulated in National Dong Hwa University Academic Calendar.
4. Students are allowed to withdraw “only one” course each semester. After the course withdrawal, total credits of the semester must not be less than the credit requirements per semester regulated by the student’s departments and degree programs.
5. The withdrawal must still be reported in the transcript of the semester and the overall transcript of the student, and it will be shown with the word “withdrawal” (W) in the grade column. The credit hours of the withdrawn course shall not be included in the computation of total credit hours completed in the semester.
6. If a course requiring tuition fee / music instruction fee / keyboard maintenance fee / experimental fee / practice fee / material fee is withdrawn, the fee shall not be reimbursed. If the fee has not been paid, the student must pay the required fee.
7. Matters not covered under these guidelines shall be handled in accordance with other related regulations.
8. These guidelines shall be implemented after being approved by the Academic Affairs Committee and the President.
